

Flora Ferng is the Lead Advisor to Asian Communities of NYC Commission on Human Rights. She received Frederick O'Reilly Hayes Prize Foundation special COVID-19 Response Award on helping to combat the spike in anti-Asian bias. Previously, she was the Managing Director for Asian Americans for Equality. She joined AAFE as a Homeownership program counselor and trainer in 1997.

Ms. Ferng was passionate about using her experiences to provide education and outreach to people of all backgrounds in NYC. Her extensive background in program coordination & implementation enables her to mobilize the community and ethnic media to raise public awareness about changes in government policy and regulations and to help people understand and access these information.

Flora was a member of Fannie Mae's National Advisory Committee on Community Outreach. Between 2009 to 2015, she had been a member of the Manhattan Community Board 3, assigned to the Human Services, Health, Disability and Senior/ Youth & Education Committee. Currently, she is the Board Secretary of Apicha Community Health Center.

NYC Human Rights Law Protections:

<https://www.nyc.gov/site/cchr/media/list-of-protected-classes.page>

Protections against religious discrimination

<https://www.nyc.gov/site/cchr/media/brochures/religious-discrimination.page>